

Smart Exhibit: History Of The Smart Brand On Display At The Mercedes-Benz Museum

{mosgoogle right}Want to get up close and personal with the newly-announced smart fortwo but don't want to wait for its April 2007 debut? Mercedes has announced today that rather than subjecting you to an agonizing four month wait, they'll instead be hosting a "smart story" exhibit at their museum from December 6th through January 14th which will showcase the design evolution of the smart brand, from its initial concept way back in 1993 up through its current, soon-to-debut new style. In total, there will be 18 different smart vehicles on display, ranging from design studies, prototypes and show cars, many of which have never before been presented to the public.
