

Mercedes-Benz Honors Its World Best After-Sales Team At Global TechMasters

{mosgoogle right}On November 22, 2007, the winners of this year's Mercedes-Benz Global TechMasters were honored at the official award ceremony in the Mercedes-Benz Museum in Stuttgart. In 2007, the best Mercedes-Benz service station team for passenger vehicles comes from Switzerland. Second place went to the team from Germany. The best 75 out of 10.000 participants from 15 countries took part in the final round of the competition in Stuttgart.

'To provide customer-focused high-quality after-sales services, you need competent and service-oriented employees. Because of our state-of-the-art technologies and comprehensive range of products, it is crucial that we provide our employees with high-quality training and continuing education in order to maintain the competitiveness of our company,' said Gunther Fleig, Daimler Board of Management member for Human Resources and Labor Relations Director. 'The Mercedes-Benz Global TechMasters competition helps to motivate the technicians and service staff at our workshops worldwide to deliver top performance every day and thereby contribute to the brand's success,' added Fleig, the patron of the competition.

Â

Read moreÂ